Kind Statement on Wisconsin Tornadoes

La Crosse, WI – U.S. Rep. Ron Kind (D-WI) released the following statement today after a tornado took a destructive tour through Southwest and South-central Wisconsin, destroying or severely damaging several homes in the village of Viola in Richland County.

“My deepest sympathies go out to the communities that were struck by last evening’s destructive storm. The village of Viola and the other impacted communities need assistance, and I intend to do everything I can to help them get the resources they need to recover from this tragedy. Already, local emergency responders have done an exceptional job in assisting residents and coming to the aid of victims, and I commend them on their hard efforts. My office stands ready to help them in any way possible in the disaster relief efforts and reconstruction process.”
